

My Visions and Goals at Different Life Stages

Childhood

My vision as a child was to become an astronaut and learn and explore space, and my goal was to study hard and work on my creativity and become a good a successful adult.

Teenage Years

My dream as a teenager was to become a successful businesswoman and own a company, My goal was to learn about business and stock, gain experience and develop leadership and communication skills.

Adulthood

Recently I became curious about advancing technology and my interest shifted to computer science and technology, as of now my goal is to maintain a work-life balance, pursue my passion and to lead a happy and healthy life.
